

COMMUNITY NEWS

Windsor for her quilt titled "Black and White Moment."

The contest, co-sponsored by the Princeton Photography Club, was open to all RWJ Hamilton employees, members of the medical staff and their relatives. The exhibit is open to the public until March 5 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at Lakefront Gallery, located along the mezzanine above the Roma Bank Café at RWJ Hamilton, One Hamilton Health Place.

TRENTON

Lacrosse program open to grades 3-8

Come to the YMCA of Trenton tomorrow and learn about the lacrosse program for area boys and girls this spring.

The program is open to boys and girls in grades 3 through 8 from Trenton, Ewing and Hamilton.

At the information session, scheduled from 11 a.m. to noon at the YMCA of Trenton, 431 Pennington Ave., the leaders will outline the objectives of Hamilton Mayor Kelly Yaede and the Hamilton Dr. Martin Luther King Committee recently presented its annual Dr. King Tribute at Faith Baptist Church, featuring music by Isaiah Alston, a finalist on TV's "X Factor," and Jacob Rivedal and the church's adult choir. Jane Latini, third from the right, executive director of Interfaith Caregivers of Greater Mercer County, accepted the Dr. King Spirit of Community Service Award on behalf of the organization. The keynote address was delivered by Joseph E. Woods, fourth from the right, senior pastor of Saint Phillips Baptist Church of Hamilton. They are surrounded by the committee, from left: Lance Walker, Quincy Hendryx, Gloria Stephens, Eileen P. Thornton, Lawrence Boyd III and Marty Flynn.

Dr. King Tribute